

QUALITY TIME

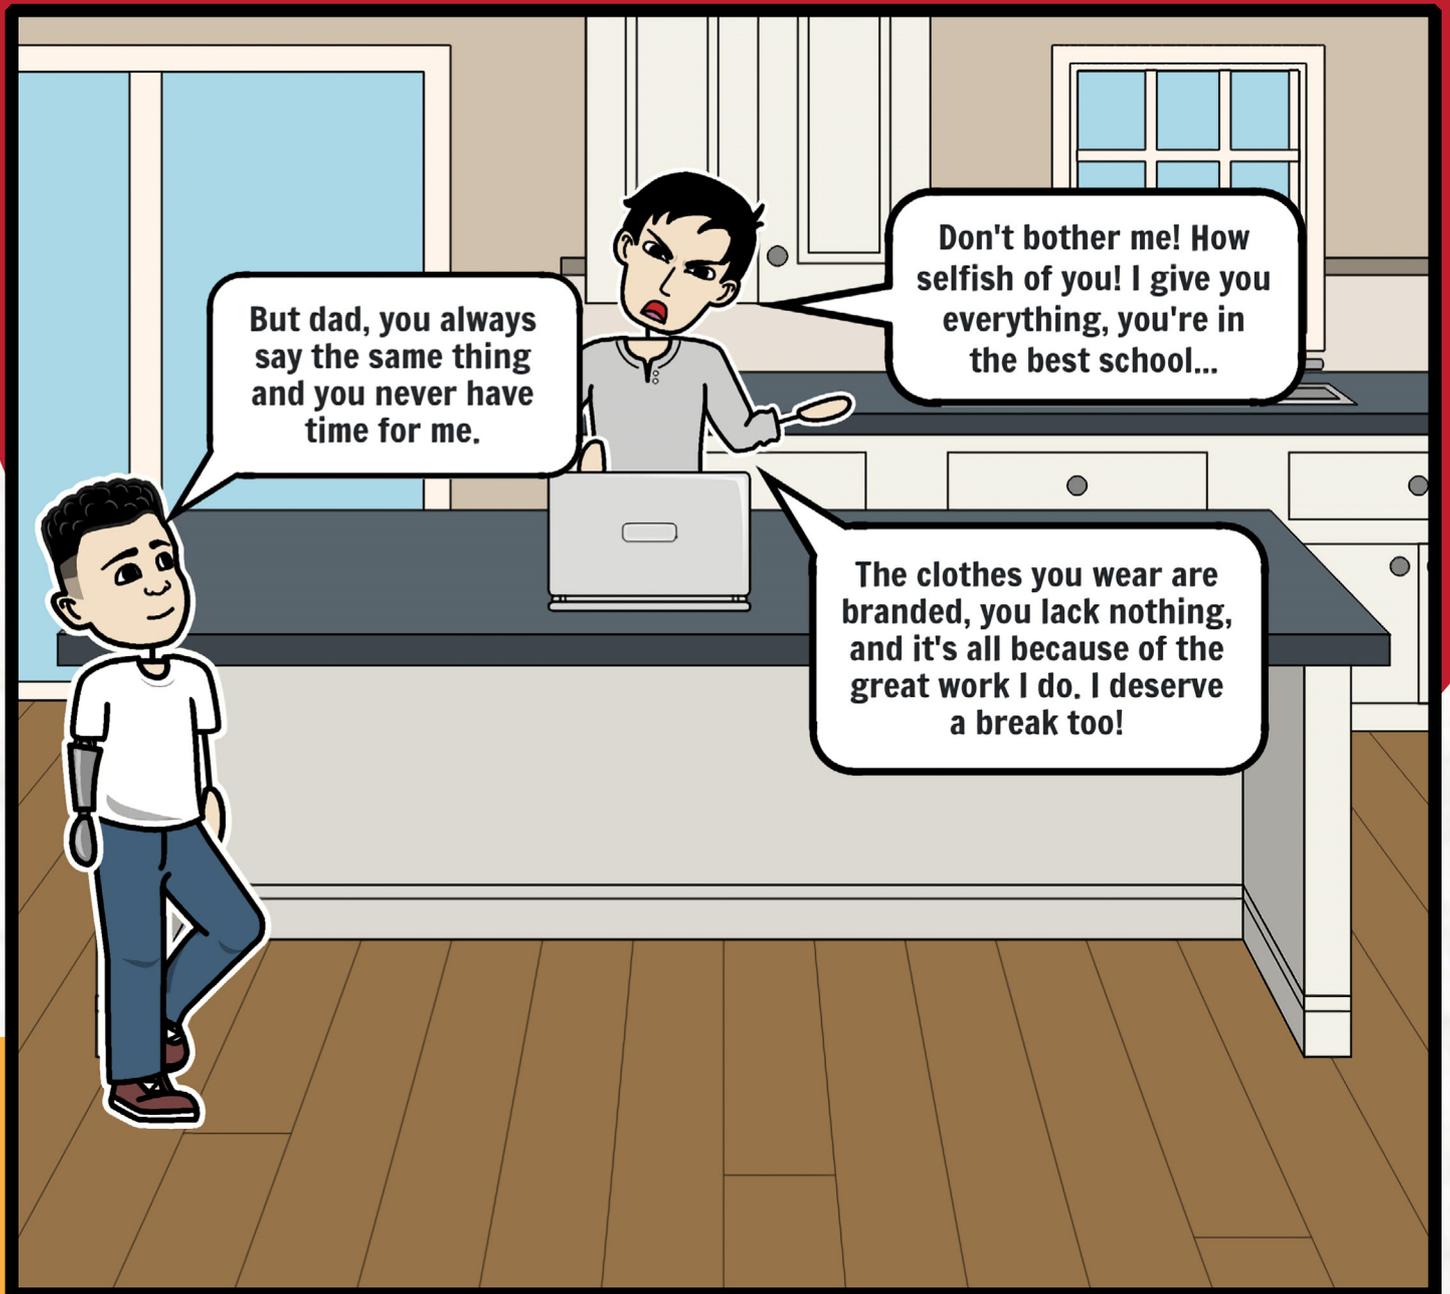

John is sitting outside his house looking rather sad.

John asks Daddy could they both watch a movie together later, but Daddy says he is too tired.

John asks Daddy to play football with him, but Daddy says he has a work meeting, so he can't play with John.

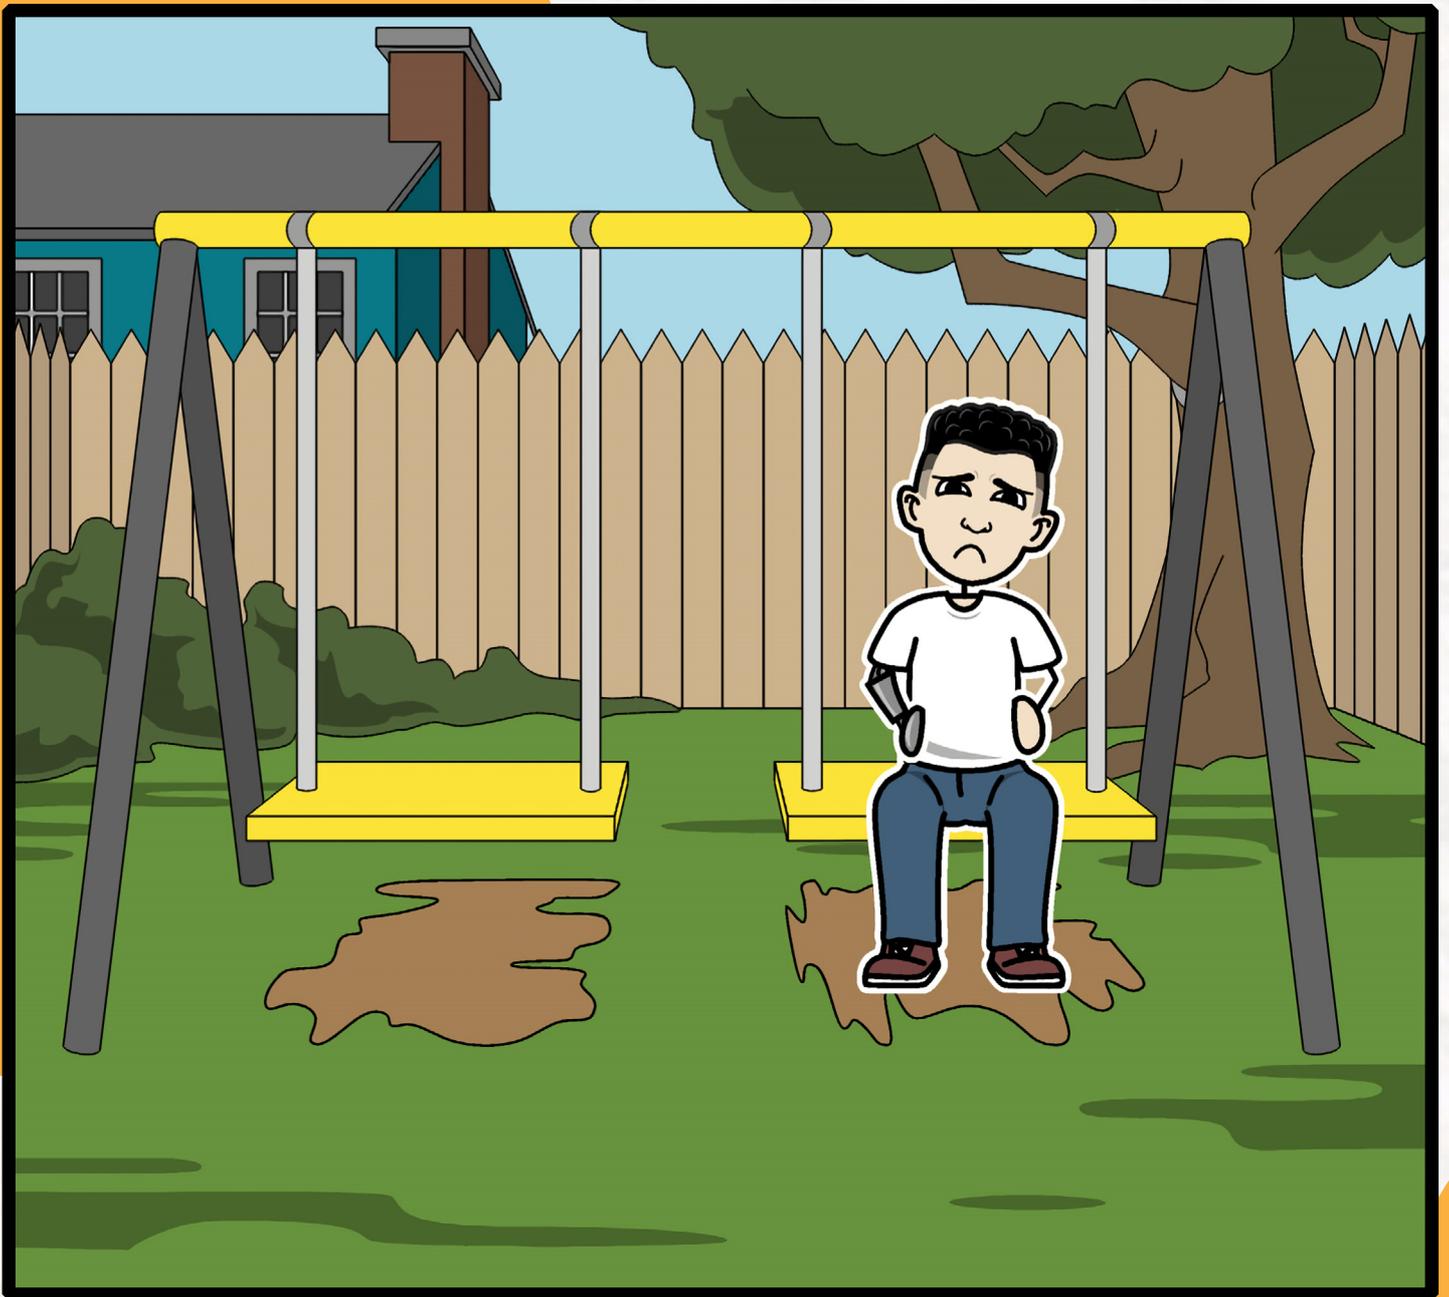

But dad, you always say the same thing and you never have time for me.

Don't bother me! How selfish of you! I give you everything, you're in the best school...

The clothes you wear are branded, you lack nothing, and it's all because of the great work I do. I deserve a break too!

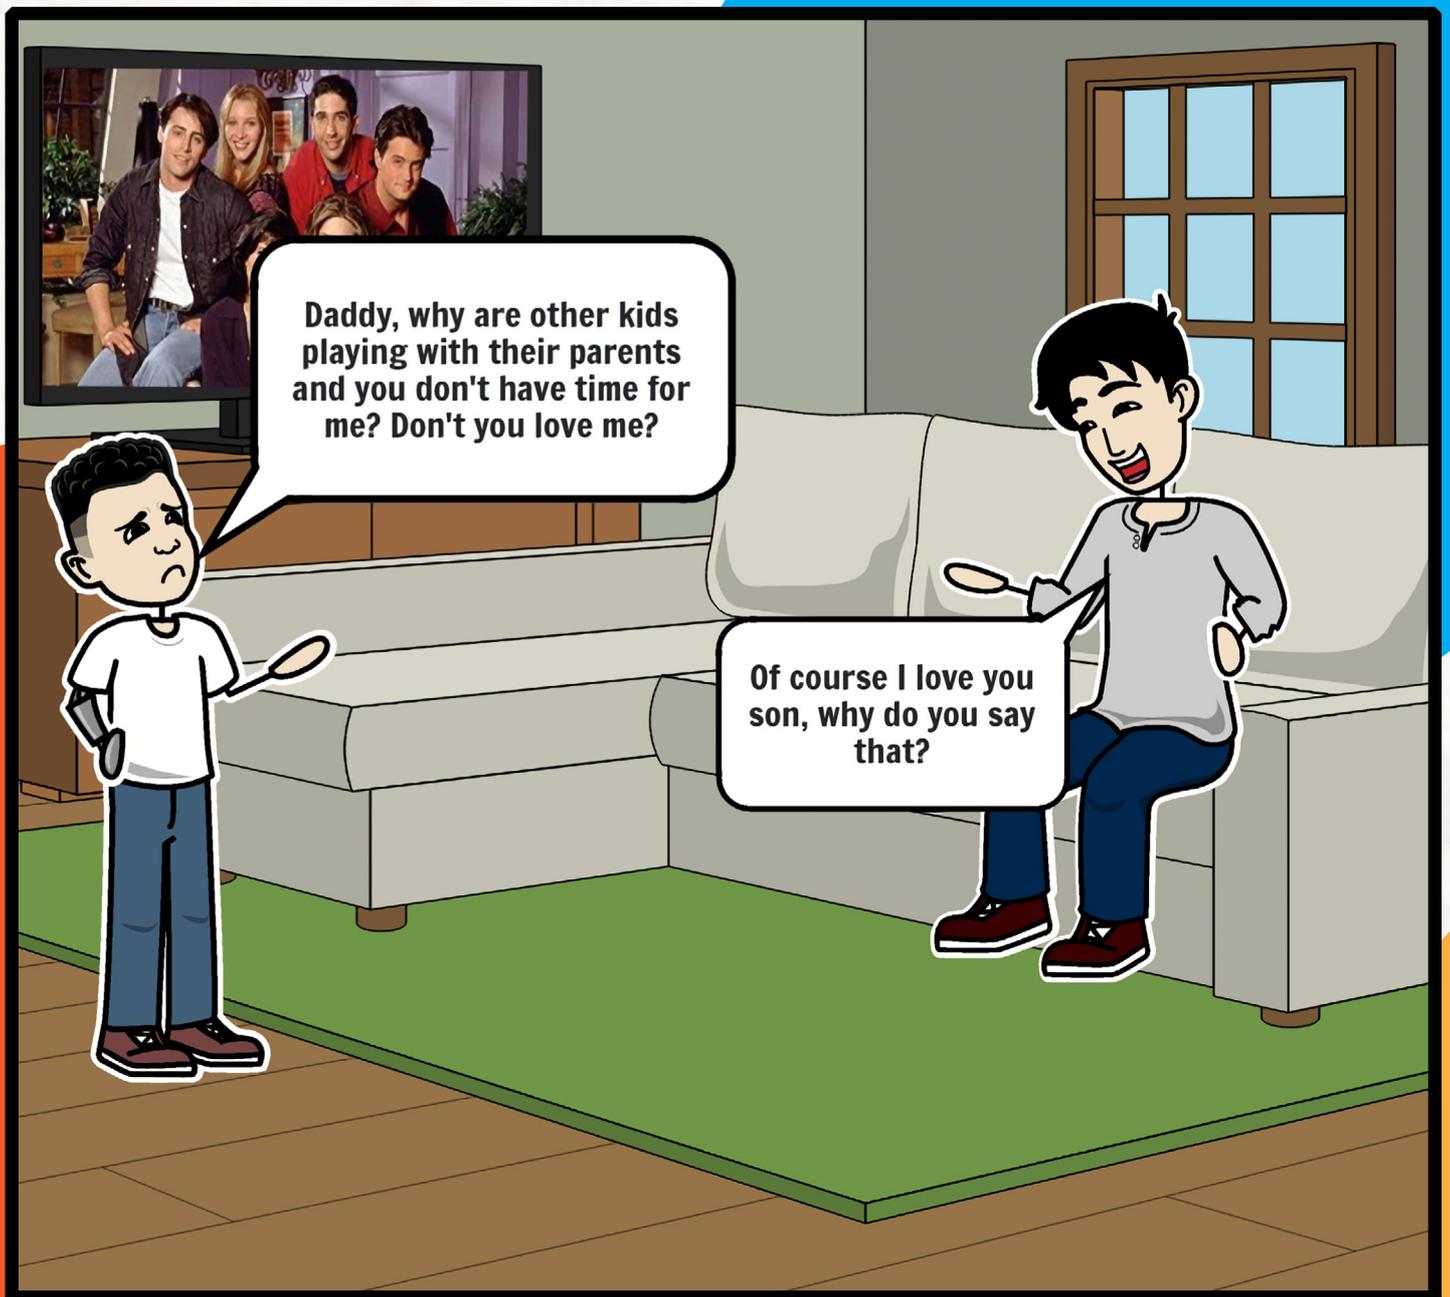

Daddy snaps at John when John says they never spend time together!

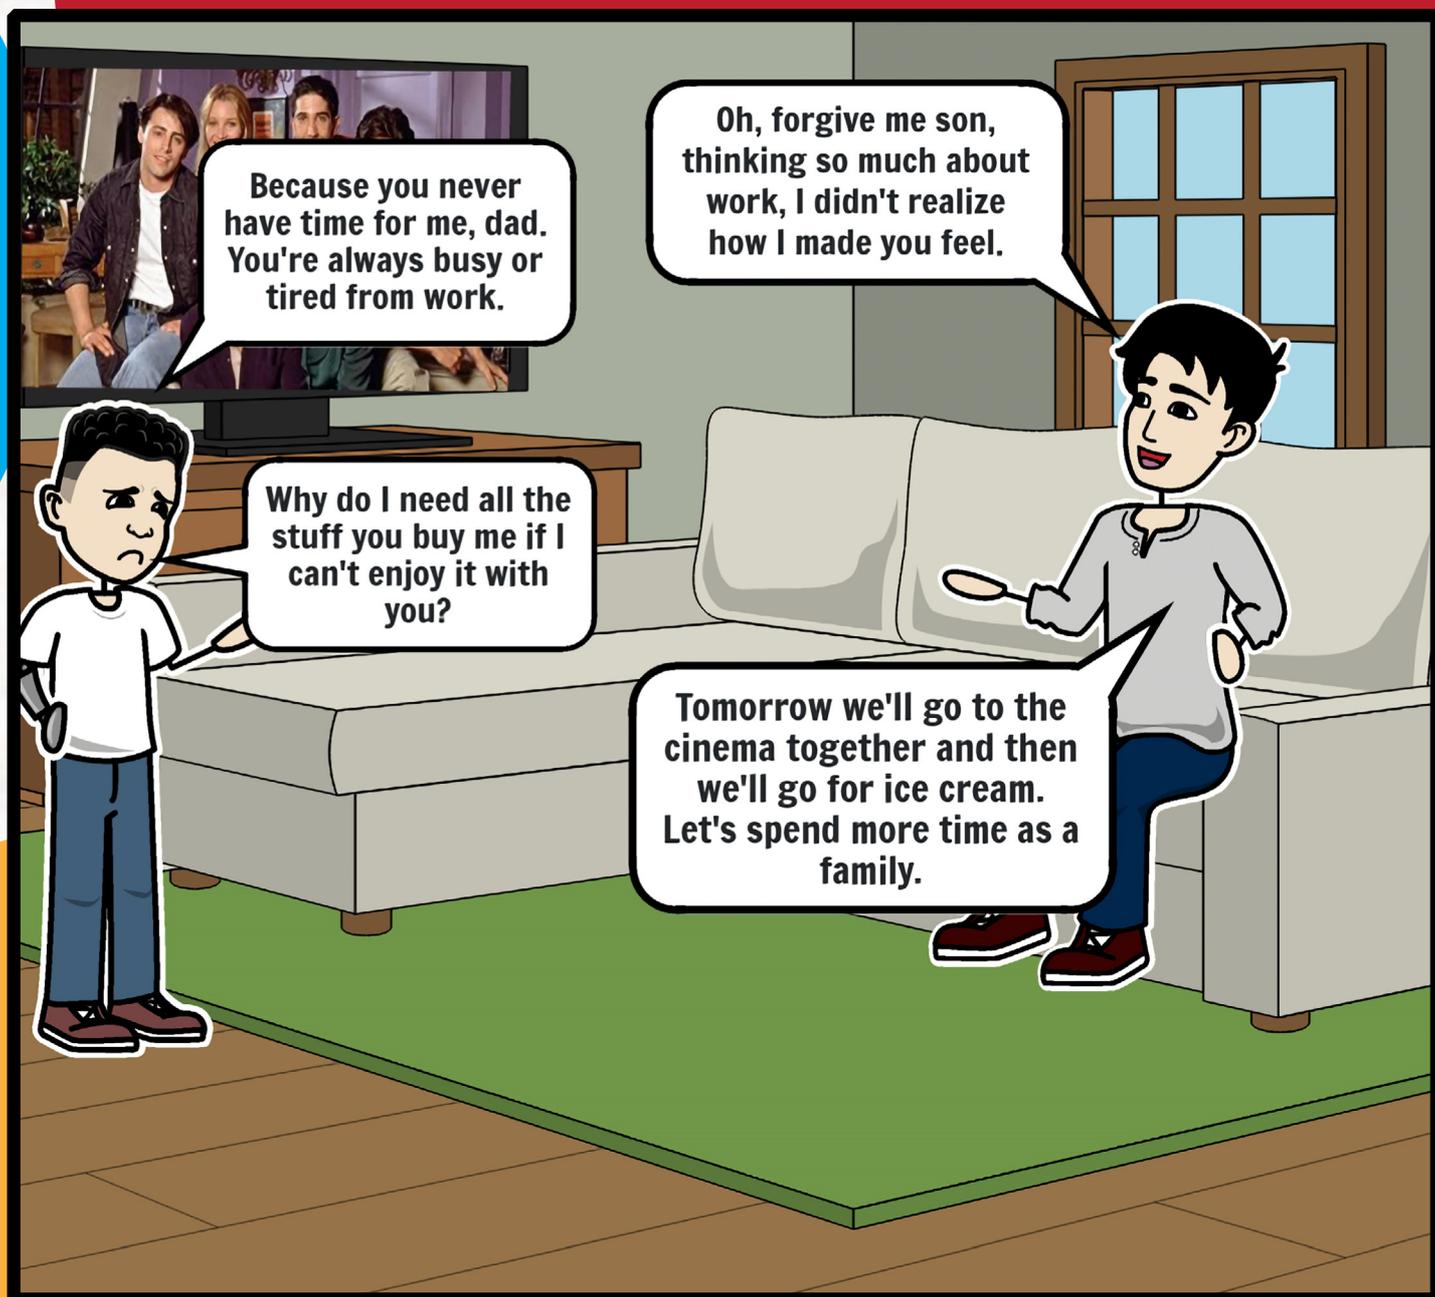

John goes outside to play on the swings by himself, and he looks very sad...

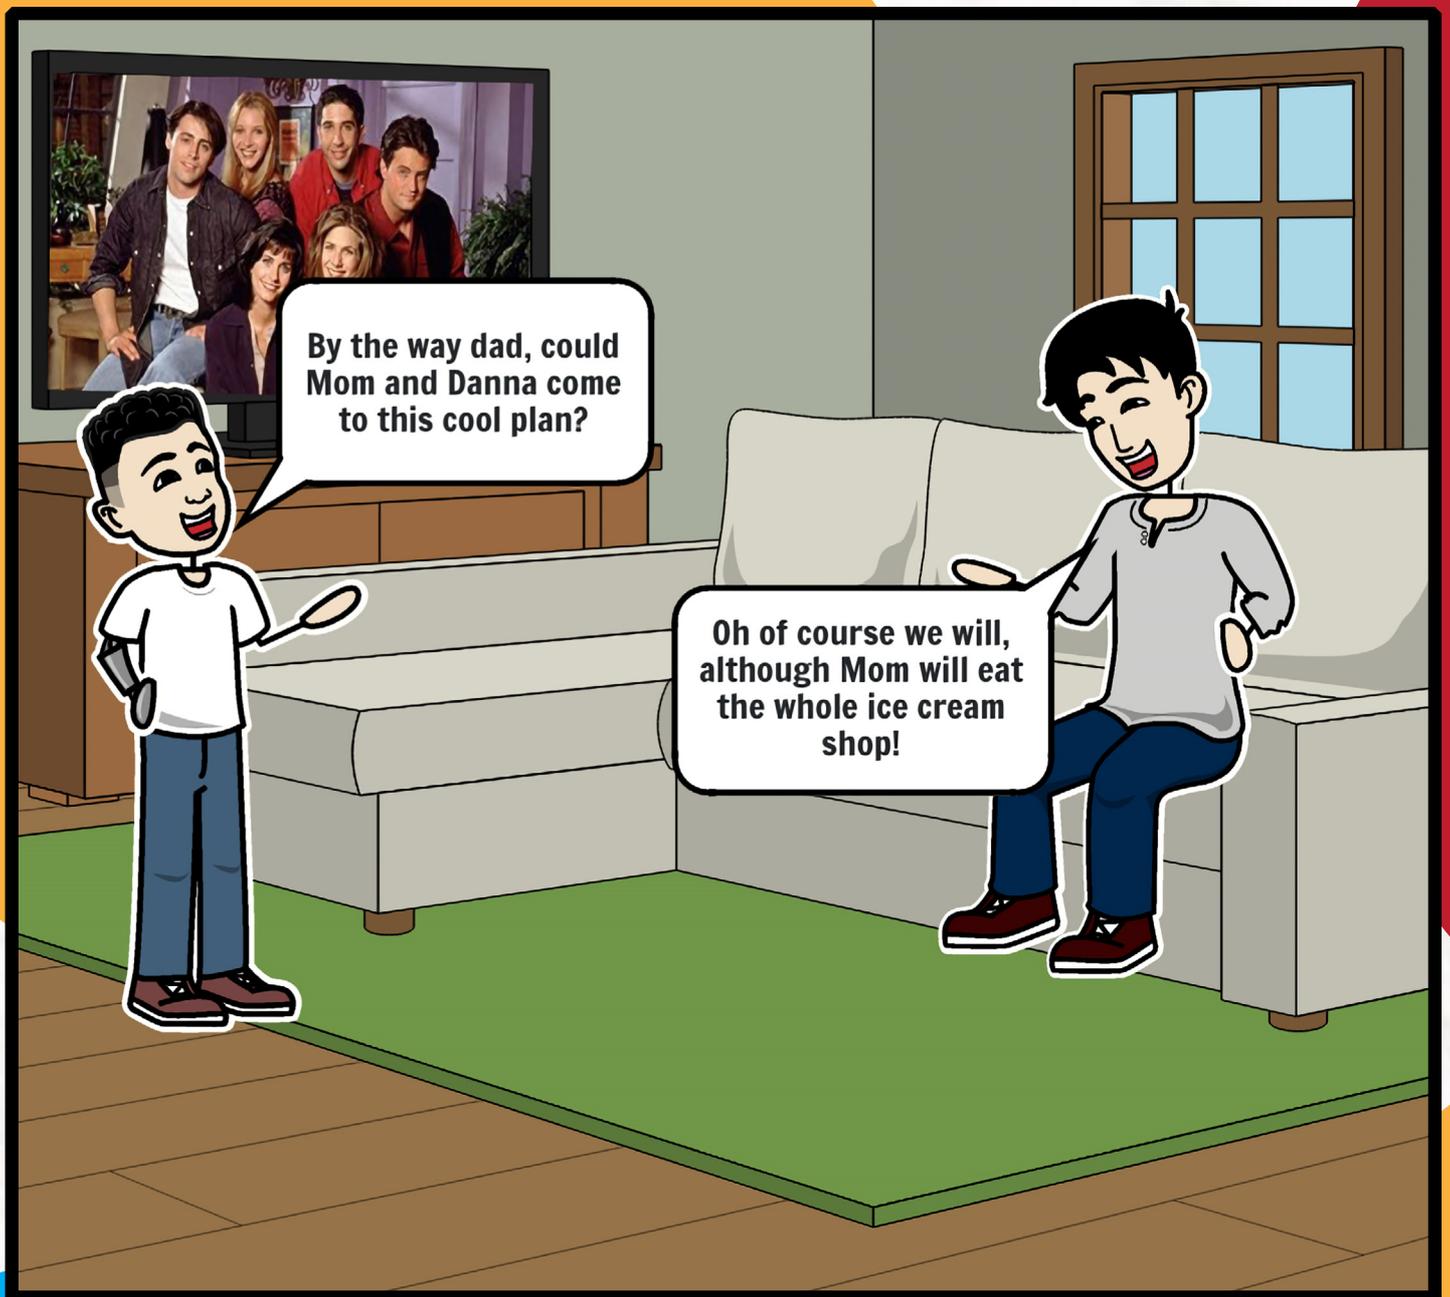

John goes to the pool and sees a little girl playing and having fun with her Daddy...

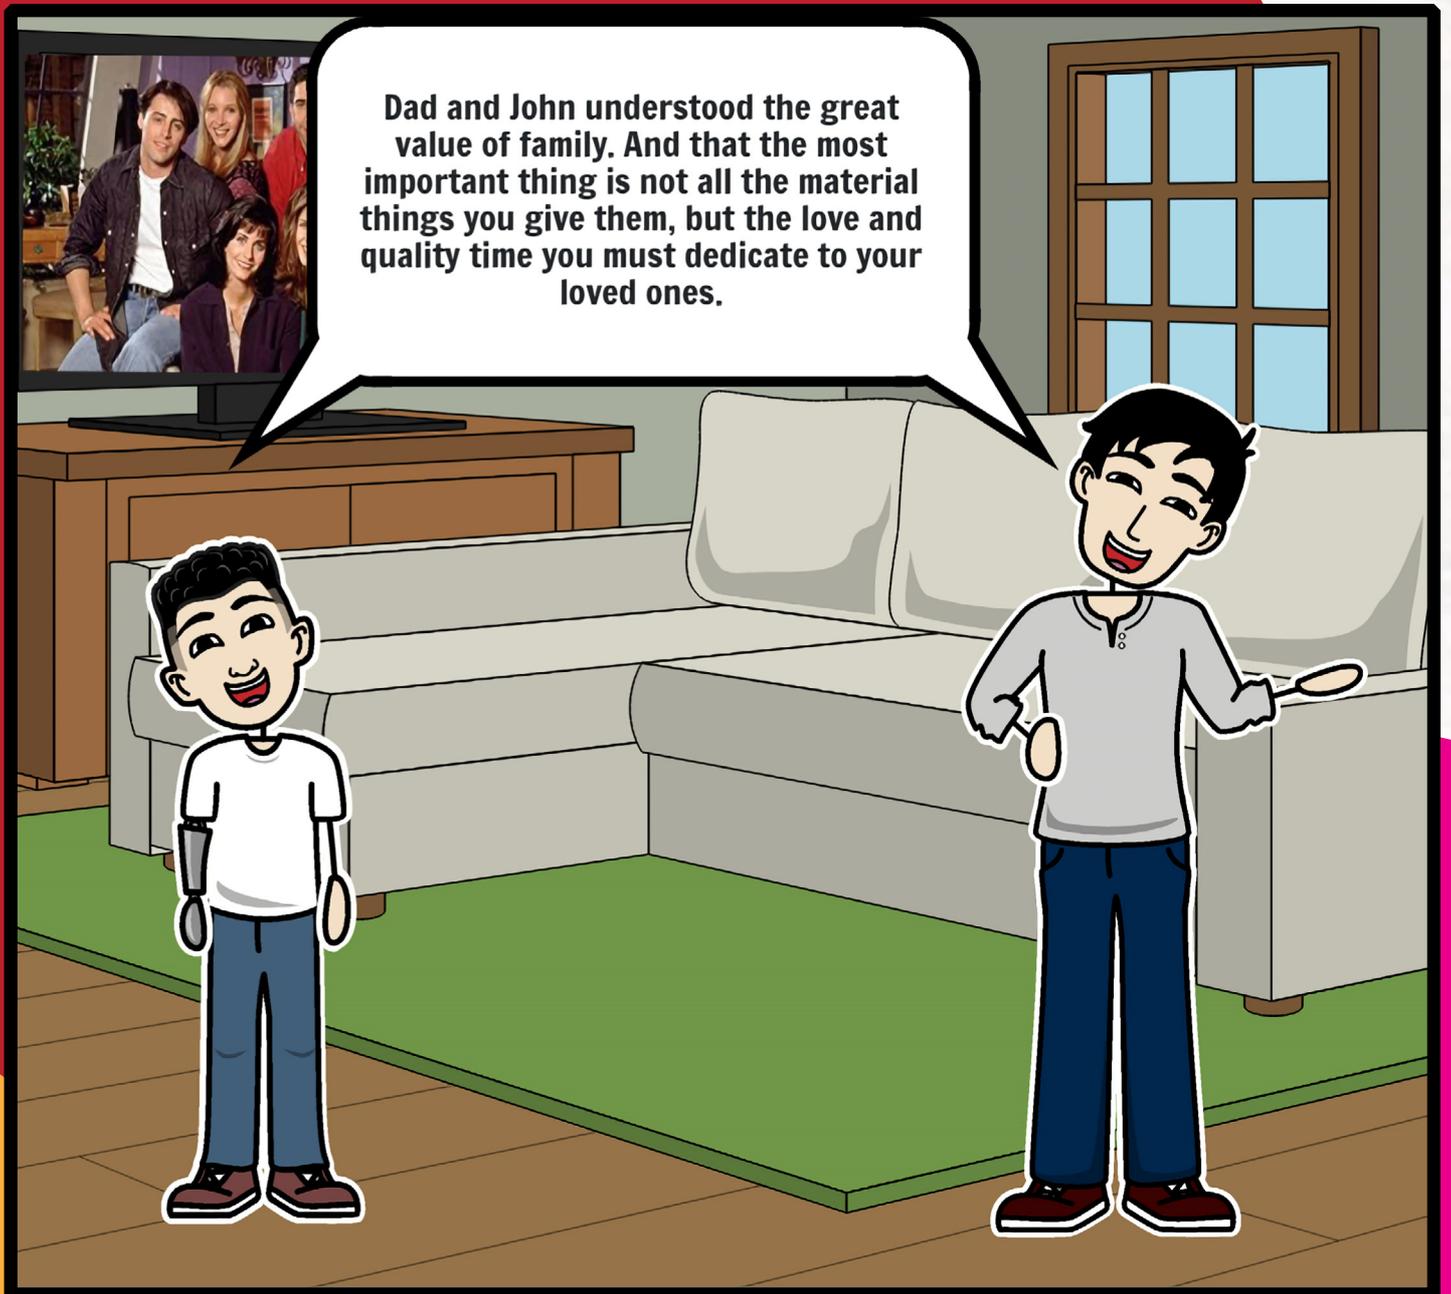

John comes back home, and asks Daddy why he never plays with him.

Daddy apologizes to John for being so busy with work lately, and says that tomorrow they will go to the cinema and get ice cream!

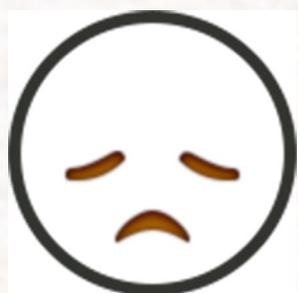

John asks if Mom and Danna can both come, and Daddy says Mom will eat all the ice-cream in the shop!

Both Dad and John realized the importance of family, and how important it is to spend quality time with them!
